REACH AGREEMENT ON OMNIBUS BILL

Conferees Strike Out Appropriation For Vice-Commission

ASSURES ADJOURNMENT

About Half of the Eighty Amendments Added to Measure By Senate Are Stricken

REPEAL SCHOOL CHARTE

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 17.—Adjournment of the legislature tomorrow night was assured late tonight when the conference committee of house and senate member reached an agreement on the omnibus appropriation bill. The agreement included that the $10,000 item for the vice investigating committee be stricken out of the bill.

Approximately 80 amendments were added to the omnibus appropriation bill by the senate. The agreement, which was reached shortly after midnight after a day of conferences specifies that about half of the eighty senate amendments shall stay in the bill.

Announcement was made by the conferees that Lieut. Goveronor Barrett O'Hara, chairman of the vice-commission who had announced that as president of the senate he would hold the legislature in session until the $10,000 appropriation was added to the bill, had agreed to the compromise. The compromise was said to include that the house agree to a larger appropriation for the state treasurer's office.

The senate late tonight adopted a joint resolution offered by Senator Barr of Will county, providing that the legislature adjourn tomorrow and setting June 30th as the date for sine die adjournment.

O'Hara Holds Up Bills.

Lieutenant Governor Barratt O'Hara, who is chairman of the vice-commission, stated early today that he would hold up the passage of bills in the senate to such an extent that the legislature would be unable to adjourn until next week unless the $10,000 item was agreed to. The senate was in session only a short time transacting practically no business.

Speaker Shanahan and Governor Dunne were in conference over the deadlock but nothing resulted. The admistrations' army appropriation bill is being held up by Lieut. Governor O'Hara's filibuster.

The senate last night refused to adopt the adjournment resolution, adopting instead a motion saying that it was the sense of the senate that the legislature stay in session until every senate bill has had a roll call in the house. Nearly 150 senate bills are on the house calendar and it wil be impossible to pass them by tomorrow night.

Urge Against Appropriation.

Speaker Shanahan received approximately 300 telegrams today urging him to continue his stand against the vice commission appropriation. No important measures remain to be considered by the legislature and with the exception of the deadlock over the appropriation bill everything is ready for adjournment tomorrow.

The house passed the so-called injunction and abatement bill providing for the abatement by injunction of disorderly houses.

Under the measure injunctions could be issued against disorderly houses for a period of one year. The bill will have to be returned to the senate for concurrence as it was amended in the house to give the owners of the property five days to prepare for a hearing.

Five Armory Bills Die.

Five bills which had been passed by the senate and which appropriated $215,000 for armories at Jacksonville, Moline, Oak Park, Sterling and Pekin, died when the house appropriations' committee recommended that they be tabled. The same committee also killed the Keller bill, appropriating $25,000 to pay the expenses of a proposed commission to investigate the election laws of the state and the Keller bill appropriating $40,000 to pay the expenses of Illinois veterans in attending the reunion of survivors of the battle of Vicksburg, which will be held in October.

The following are some of the bills passed by the house:

Giving to the public utilities commission authority to fix the amount of capital stock of any corporation.

Appropriating $250,00 for the erection of a monument to former Governor Richard J. Oglesby in Lincoln Park, Chicago.

Repeal Jacksonville Charter.

Repealing the special school charter of the city of Jacksonville and placing that school district under the general school law.

Appropriating $5,000 for a monument to former Governor Thomas Carlin at Carmi.

The senate passed Representative Holiday's bill making valid any actions held by counties or municipalities for issuing bonds or state aid roads and making such bonds legal.

The Jacobson bill requiring that persons engaged in any business where poisonous fumes or dust in harmful quantities results, shall provide rooms for employes entirely above ground was passed by the senate.

Defeat Boxing Bill.

The Carroll boxing bill which had been passed by the senate was defeated late tonight when the lower house refused to suspend its rules for the consideration of the measure.

Representative Epstein of Chicago called the boxing bill upon the order of second reading, the last chance the measure will have at this session. Representative George H. Wilson of Quincy objected and Epstein moved to suspend the rules.

The senate tonight killed the anti-race riot bill. The affirmative vote was only one short of the required constitutional majority but a scouring of the senate failed to produce the additional friend needed.

The senate bill putting employes of the Chicago sanitary district under civil service, was defeated in the house tonight, when that body by a vote of 82 to 8 refused to suspend its rules for the consideration of the measure.

RUSSIANS UNABLE TO STERN TEUTON ADVANCE

BERLIN CLAIMS MUSCOVITES ARE RETREATING OVER FRONTIER

Means an Invasion of Russian Territory at a New Point—Austro-Germans Batter Through to Niemerow.

LONDON, June 17—Another twenty-four hours of fighting in Galicia has developed nothing to stem the Austro-German advance toward Lemberg from the west and northwest and tonight Berlin claims that the Russians are retreating over their own frontier toward Tarnogrod about four miles from the Galician border.

Means Invasion at New Point.

This means an invasion of Russian territory at a new point, but, according to military observers here, it may spell ultimate advantage for the Russians in that a general Russian retirement northward into Poland will divert General Linsingen's attempt to crush the Russian center near Zurawna which would effectively serve the communications of the Russian army in southeastern Galicia and Bukowina. The military writers here say that the real danger zone from the Russian standpoint is in the Zurawna district and along the Dniester.

Batter Through Niemerow.

According to Berlin, the Austro-German forces have battered through Niemerow, thirty miles northwest of Lemberg, and are advancing toward Jaworow, which is only 25 miles to the west of the Galician capital. Three great masses of Austro-Germans thus are sweeping from the San toward the capital city and the prediction is made that the decisive battle, if one is fought, will take place in the vicinity of Grodek where the British military observers consider that the Russians should benefit because of the lake country.

Maneuver Deflects Blow.

The British newspapers, though not minimizing the importance of the Austro-German successes in Galicia, acclaim what is styled the Grand Duke Nicholas' elusive strategy in shifting his front from north and south to northwest and southeast. This maneuver, it is asserted has deflected the Austro-German blow to some extent and at the same time denied to them a full text of strength. Thus the Russian retreat is characterized in London as strikingly paralleling the allies' retreat in the west last fall, which culminated in the allies' victory on the Marne. The struggle along the Dniester and before Lemberg, it is considered here, must determine which side is the more valuable in the present maneuvers.

CLARK URGES DEVELOPMENT OF TERMINALS ALONG MISSISSIPPI

ST. LOUIS, June 17.—Speaker Champ Clark in an address before the St. Louis Press club today said that the Mississippi valley was in grave danger of letting the advantages which the Panama canal should bring slip by and a great need was a development of river terminals.

Mr. Clark said that several years ago he predicted that by 1915 the middlewest would control congress; but the facts were that while Atlantic seaboard states had increased their congressional representation, the middlwest had not. This he attributed to the development of water transportation in the eastern states.

PREDICTS UTTER ROUT OF THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC BY 1919

DANVILLE, Ill., June 17—Dr. George McGinniss of Aurora, principal speaker at the closing session of the Illinois Sunday school association convention today predicted the utter rout of the liquor traffic by 1919.

This will be accompalished by national legislation through the efforts of the churches, he said.

The executive committee reappointed all of the appointive officers except Dr. R. P. Shepperd, of Chicago.

CANADIAN AVIATOR IS KILLED BY FALL

RECENTLY GAINED FAME BY BLOWING ZEPPELIN TO PIECES

Lieut Warneford and Henry Beach Needham Die When Plane Falls Five Hundred Feet—Accident Occurs at Buc, France.

Paris, June 17.—Lieut. Reginald J. Wareford who gained fame recently by blowing to pieces a Zeppelin over Belgium, was killed today by the fall of an aeroplane at Buc, France.

Lieutenant Warneford was piloting the machine, which had as a passenger Henry Beach Needham, the American writer who also was killed.

Lieutenant Warneford and Needham fell from a height of 500 feet. The lieutenant had been spending a few days in Paris where he came after his Zeppelin exploit to receive his decoration of the legion of honor.

According to a report received in Paris, the accident resulted from an explosion in mid-air which caused Lieutenant Warneford to lose control, the machine crashing to earth. Needham's body was taken to the English hospital in Trianon Palace Versailles. He had been in Europe about four months acting as correspondent of magazines and a New York newspaper. He had received permission from the military authorities to make a flight in order to get material for a story. His wife, who also is a writer accompanied him during the early part of his trip abroad. Mrs. Needham sailed for America six weeks ago.

Reginald A. J. Warneford, a young Canadian sub-lieutenant in the Royal navy suddenly acquired world-wide renown by destroying a Zeppelin over Belgium on June 7th, this being the first time on record that a Zeppelin had been wrecked by an aviator in an aeroplane. By a brilliant flight Lieutenant Warneford obtained a position above the Zeppelin and dropped bombs on it. The dirigible crashed to the ground and burned up. The twenty-eight men in the crew were killed.

For this feat Lieutenant Warneford was decorated with the Victorian Cross and the cross of the Legion of Honor. Lieutenant Warneford made his first flight at Hendon, England, less than five months ago and had been with the flying squadron only a few weeks.

VON BERNSTORFF TO CALL AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT TODAY

German Ambassador to Personally Inform Secretary Lansing That Safe Conduct was Not Used by Dr. Alfred Meyer.

Washington, June 17.—Count Von-Bernstorff the German ambassador who was in New York today made an engagement by telegraph to call at the state department tomorrow to personally inform Secretary Lansing that there is no foundation for published reports that a safe conduct obtained for Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerhard had been used to return to Europe by Dr. Alfred Meyer, a German purchasing agent of war munitions.

Mr. Lansing announced today the receipt of a message from Maniel Von Haim Hausen, counsellor of the German embassy and its charge d'affaires at Cedarhurst, L. I., making a general denial of the published charges of deception and pointing out that such articles constituted a personal attack upon the ambassador and his delegate, Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerhard, likely at the same time to nullify the sincere and earnest efforts of the ambassador to bring about an understanding between the United States and Germany on the Lusitania question.

Later came the telegram from the ambassador himself. He is expected to ask the state department to use its influence to prevent the spread of such reports. He appealed once before to the department to prevent misrepresentations of the embassy and its staff in some newspapers.

Secretary Lansing made public the telegram from counsellor Von Haim Hausen. The secretary also said he had received word from an American in good standing in New York whose word he would not question and who knew both Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerhard and Dr. Alfred Meyer very well, stating that he went to the pier to say good bye to the former and did not see the latter. Mr. Lansing said the man had declined to have his name used. He is konwn to be the proprietor of a New York afternoon newspaper.

WILLIAM RAUP OF WISCONSIN WINS THE WESTERN HANDICAP

ST. LOUIS, June 17.—William Raup, of Portage, Wis., won the western handicap, the final event of the tenth annual trap shooting tournament of the Interstate association which came to a close here today. Raup won this principal event of the tournament from 230 shooters, after shooting off two ties.

Raup scored 97 out of 100 targets in the early firing, but this was equalled by George Grubb of Wetmore, Kan., and T. A. Snell of Staunton, Ill. The trio then shot at twenty targets and each scored 18. In the third trial Raup hit 19 out of the 20, Grubb 18 and Snell 17.

War News Summarized

A series of desperate encounters is described by the French war office in that sector along the battle front in France comprising the territory to the north of Arras—Aix Noulette, Souchez, Neuville St. Vaast and other towns—which for weeks past has been the scene of fighting of a most determined character.

Shells to the number of 300,000 were poured into the ranks and trenches of the Germans and at various points the contending forces fought with bayonet and grenade.

For two days, the French report, the actions have been numerous and desperate, the artillery duel violent and continuous. The French have carried several lines of trenches on the board from Aix-Noulette to Souchez, they have advanced in all directions toward Souchez, gaining their ground by what is recorded as a series of "brilliant assaults."

The Germans brought eleven divisions, approximately 154,000 men, into the actions and on both sides the losses were heavy.

Berlin's account of the battle admits the loss of a position to the French south of Souchez extending over a width of nearly a half mile, but later claims set up by the French make the capture complete.

The Russians are in retreat in Russian Poland. Austrian reports that the western part of Grodek has been stormed and as Grodek is only a short distance to the west of Lemberg, the advance of General VonMachensen's great army is evidently making good progress.

Latest advices from Udine report that the Italian outposts have arrived in sight of Trieste. But along the line of the Isonzo river the Austrians have many thousands of troops holding strongly fortified positions, where hard fighting is now in progress.

On the naval side of the war an Austrian submarine has sunk the Italian submarine Medusa and on unofficial report from Athens credits a British underwater boat with sending to the bottom in the Dardanelles three Turkish transports loaded with troops. A German submarine has sunk the British coasting steamer Trafford off the Welsh coast and sent the steamer Turnwell into Milfordhaven badly damaged.

TURNWELL ESCAPES SUBMARINE; STEAMS INTO MILFORDHAVEN

Eagerness of Submarine Captain to Sink Another Ship Gives Steamer Chance to Escape After Bombs Had Been Exploded in Her Hold.

Milfordhaven, Wales, June 7.—With a big list to port and all her pumps working at full pressure, the steamer Turnwell steamed into port after having surrendered to a German submarine, the crew of which had exploded bombs in her hold.

The escape of the steamer was due to the fact that the submarine's captain, eager to sink another steamer, did not remain long enough by the Turnwell to make sure of the effectiveness of the bombs.

The Turnwell, which is a vessel of 4,264 tons, left Liverpool June 15 for New York. She was overhauled by the submarines 30 miles off the Pembrokeshire coast, Wednesday morning and her crew ordered to take to their boats.

The Germans boarded the Turnwell, exploded the bombs and then hurriedly put off from her, having sighted the British coasting steamer Trafford, a vessel of 234 tons, which they pursued and sank. The Turnwell's crew then returned to their ship and plugged the holes made by the bombs as best they could, started the pumps and made all possible speed for the nearest port. On the way the Turnwell picked up the crew of the Trafford.

Some of the men of the Turnwell say that although the Germans were in a great hurry, they tarried long enough on board the steamer to ransack the cabins and take everything valuable.

ENGLISH BREAK OPEN AMERICAN MAIL POUCHES

LETTERS DESTINED FOR SWEDEN IS TAMPERED WITH

Swedish Minister on Instructions by His Government, Notifies Secretary Lansing and Requests Appropriate Action.

Washington, June 17.—Formal notice that United States mail pouches destined for Sweden had been broken open in England and their contents tampered with, was submitted to the state department today by W. A. F. Ekengren the Swedish minister, with a request for appropriate action.

The minister called at the department and delivered to Secretary Lansing a letter, written on instructions from his government, reciting instances of interference with mail for Sweden and pointing out that such acts were in violation of the provisions of the world postal convention and of other treaty stipulations.

The letter stated that the seals of mail bags were broken, that letters were opened and censored and that one registered unit was retained.

Two specific cases were mentioned, one involving mail sent on the American Steamer New York when she left on May 29, and the other pouches carried by the British steamer Adriatic which sailed on May 27th.

In the former case it was asserted that out of twenty nine registered letters and packages seven arrived in Sweden opened, while the great part of the other mail had been censored. Of the Adriatic's mail which arrived in Gothenburg on June 9th, several letters were said to have been opened and one registered uniet to have been retained.

Whether the piece of mail matter shown by a comparison of receipts to be missing was an official communication has not been revealed but it is known that diplomatic correspondence was sent from Washington on the Adriatic.

Mr. Clifton after he had attended a lodge meeting at Kingman and another from the home of William Coffing near Covington, where he had been a guest over night. Mr. Clifton said that he would be able to clear himself of the charge.

DANISH HOUSE TO SUPPORT MINISTRY'S NEUTRALITY POLICY

LONDON, June 17.—A Reuter despatch from Copenhagen says the Danish Folkething, or lower house of parliament, today unanimously resolved to support the ministry in its policy of absolute neutrality.

A despatch from Capenhagen Wednesday said that as a result of attacks by the conservative newspapers and their demands for the formation of a coalition government owing to the radical cabinet's policy of neutrality in the war, the government purposed to ask for a vote of confidence on its policy and that if this was not given it would resign.

The latter, however, rushed into the house ahead of his father, reached the shotgun first and fired point blank at his father's head.

Otho testified that his father had whipped his mother frequently. The boy said he shot his father to protect his mother as well as himself.

ORDER THREE CRUISERS TO MEXICAN COAST

AUTHORIZE ADMIRAL HOWARD TO LAND FORCE IF NECESSARY

Peril of American Settlers in the Yaqui Valley Brings Dispatch of Warships—Have 1,100 Officers and Men Available for Landing.

San Diego, Cal., June 17—Peril of American settlers in the Yaqui Valley of Sonora state brought orders today for the dispatch of three cruisers for the west coast of Mexico and authorization to Admiral Thomas B. Howard to land an expeditionary force if he thinks best. The flagship Colorado sailed first, under orders from Washington, carrying three companies of the fourth regiment, United States marine corps, under W. N. McKelvy.

Somewhere off the coast of Lower California the radio began snapping back orders from the Admiral which started the protected cruiser Chattanooga after the Colorado. The protected cruiser Raleigh also ordered to sail, began getting up steam and was expected to get away in the night.

All three were destined for Tobari Bay, near Guaymas, railroad terminus and seaport in Sonora. Ninety miles southeast of Guaymas is Esperanza, where an American colony which has successfully resisted attaks of Yuqui Indians is reported again to be in danger. The Indians, who have declared their independence, seek to expell settlers from land which is said to have been taken from the Yaquis under the administration of President Porifiro Diaz. They were reported today to have withdrawn to the mountains.

The three cruisers have available for landing purposes 1,100 officers and men besides the marines.

As the result of an atack by Yaqui Indians upon a work train of the Southern Pacific railroad near Mapoli, Sonora last Saturday night, two men were killed and eleven wounded, instead of one killed and three wounded as previously reported. Two Americans were among the wounded, W. E. Beach, water superintendent of the railroad was shot through the arm, W. P. Smith, a brakeman was shot through the back. His condition was aid to be grave today. Five of the wounded were Mexican soldiers.

The three hundred marines proceeding to the scene of Indian disturbances on board the Colorado, wil be landed at Guaymas, Sonora, it was decide today, and will be sent by Admiral Howard inland if necessary to aid Americans.

AGREE UPON PLANS FOR LEASING OIL LANDS OF THE OSAGE INDIANS

Tribal Council, Dressed in Native Costumes, Call Upon President and Tell Him of Agreement.

Washington, June 17—Plans for the leasing of oil lands of the Osage Indians in Oklahoma worth millions of dollars were agreed upon today by the tribal council of the Osage nation and approved by Secretary Lane of the interior department. Later, clothed in their native costumes, the Indians made a formal call on President Wilson and told him of their first agreement in fifty years with the interior department on the disposition of the oil lands.

The new arrangement eliminates the Indian Territory Illuminating Oil company which now owns the so-called Foster lease covering 180,000 acres of land in the Osage reservation. The Foster lease expires Mar. 18, 1916. After that date the new plan, which limits leases to 4,800 acre tracts of quarter section units, will take effect.

FORM LEAGUE TO ENFORCE PEACE

bje ct Is to Unite Nations With a View to Preventing Wars

NAME TAFT PRESIDENT

Long List of Representative American Citizens Is Selected as Permanent Vice-Presidents

NOT "PURE PEACE" ASSEMBLY

PHILADELPHIA, June 17,—Within historic Independence Hall today the anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill—there was formed an organization whose object it will be to promote the creation of a league of nations with a view to preventing wars or, at least, to lessen the possibilites of armed conflicts. The name adopted by the organization after some debate was "league to enforce peace. American branch."

Taft is Elected President.

Former President Taft, who presided over the conference for a part of the time, was elected permanent president, and in addition, a long list of representative American citizens was namel as permanent vice-presidents. A permanent executive committee was selected with instructions to take all measures necessary to promote the objects of the league.

In moving the adoption of the report of the committee on resolutions which embodied the objects of the league, the former president of the United States expressed the hope, "that out of this historic building may come a message that shall again help the world.

Not "Pure Peace" Assemblage.

The conference was not an assemblage of what one participant termed "pure peace" men but a gathering of those who for the most part believed in trying to bring about peace even though they had to use force to do it. There was an animated discussion over the adoption of the name and the only division that occurred on the several questions that came before the conference was on the changing of the title of the organization and to eliminate from the report of the resolution committee that paragraph which bound the members of the league of nations to use both economic and military forces against any one of their number that goes to war against another member before the questions at issue are submitted to the tribunals provided for by the league.

George W. Kirchwey, professor at law, Columbia University suggested that the name be changed to "league to establish and maintain peace." The proposed elimination of the word "force" found supporters but it was defeated after a vigorous speech by A. Lawrence Lowell, president of Harvard University and chairman of the resolution committee.

"We are here to enforce peace, otherwise we have no business here at all," he exclaimed with spirit. "When you fight a forest fire you fight it with backfire. We have here a means to discourage war and that means is the threat to use force."

Adopt Committee Report.

After this speech the report of the committee was adopted. Its provisions are:

"1. All justiciable arising between the signatory powers, not settled by negotiations, shall, subject to the limitations of treaties, be submitted to a judicial tribunal for hearing, and judgment both upon the merits and upon any issue as to it jurisdiction of the question.

"2. All other questions arising between the signatories and not settled by negotiations shall be submitted to council of conciliation for hearing, consideration and recommendation.

"3. The signatory powers shall jointly use forwith both their economic and military forces against anyone of their number that goes to war or commits acts of hostility against another of the signatories before any question arising shall be submitted as provide in the foregoing.

"4. Conferences between the signatory powers shall be held from time to time to formulate and codify rules of international law, which, unless some signatory shall signify it dissent within a stated period, shall thereafter govern in the decisions of the judicial tribunal mentioned in article one."

As Mr. Taft had to leave the city early he called Prof. John Bassett Moore, Columbia University to the chair and before leaving gave hearty endorsement to the report.

"We are in favor of doing something as well as thinking something," Mr. Taft said. "I believe in praying for peace and I also believe in doing something to support that prayer."

Regarding Administration Expenditures

At Baltimore, there was promise of retrenchment. There was to be an end to extravagance and a return to simplicity. There were to be no more prodigal expenditures of money wrung from the pockets of the people. In the face of these pledges, the sixty-third congress spent between $2,225,000,000 and $2,250,000,000, or, approximately $350,000,000 more than the next preceding congress cost the country. Republican congresses were charged with having "kept taxes high and reduced the purchasing power of the people's toil." The next national convention of the Republicans will have something to say on the subject.—Brooklyn Eagle, Dem.

Charter Repeal Law Passes.

The law repealing the Jacksonville school charter was passed by the house of the Illinois general assembly late Thursday afternoon. The vote on the measure was 106 to 1. The law is in its amended form and thus will not become effective until next March.

There is no reason to expect unfavorable action on the part of Gov. Dunne and it is practically settled therefore that the schools of Jacksonville will automatically go under the general law next spring. Then an election for nine members of the board of education and a president will be held. Three members will be chosen for one year, three for two years and three for three years and the president for one year. Each year afterward three members and the president will be chosen. There are many arguments in favor of the general law and there are reasons for believing that when it is adopted here that a forward educational step will have been taken.

Another Good Law This.

Attention has been called to a very salutary law which was recently passed in Kansas making it a criminal offense to write a check on a bank when the person signing the check has no money. Such a law in this state would put a stop to the perpetration of a good many frauds and also end many inconveniences to business men and bankers. It sometimes happens that a person will draw a check on a bank where he has no money through error, when he has money in some other bank but in such cases there will be no trouble in arriving at amicable adjustment of differences.

Section one of the law reads:

"It shall be unlawful for any person, corporation or partnership to draw, make, utter, issue or deliver to another any check or draft or depository for the payment of money or its equivalent, knowing at the time of making, drawing, uttering or delivering of any such check or draft, as aforesaid, that he has no funds on deposit in, or credits with such bank or depository with which to pay such check or draft upon presentation."

Section 2 makes it a misdemeanor punishable by fine or imprisonment in the county jail or both when the check is under $20, but if the check is over $20 it is a felony and carries with it a $500 fine and some penitentiary sentence, if the judge so decrees.

THE CENTENNARY OF WATERLOO

With varied angles of interest, the people of the civilized world will note today the hundredth anniversary of the battle of Waterloo. The names of Wellington, of Blucher, and of Bonaparte are intertwined with Waterloo, and are more familiar to the American reader than those of other European military leaders. Although the great battle is overshadowed by the present European conflict, historians and readers of history find it a basis of comparison with the present operations, as well as with the decisive battles in other wars that have determined the course of peoples and the fates of empires and leaders.

To the lover of liberty, the economist and the man who has discarded the racial, feudal and religious bigotries of the past, the battle of Waterloo has special significance. For it spelled the downfall of a dictator, a conquerer, a man who trampled on the destinies of many different peoples. Napoleon was a born leader of men, like Alexander and like Caesar. The adulation of the less powerful aided in building the great force which he directed. The world stood before him a field to conquer, and the Little General heeded the call of empire, of glory. His successes grew apace, and many nations in many lands fell under his dominion. But a combination of interests succeeded in curbing the great Napoleon. The world furnished its own cure for dictatorship, as it is finding it today in Europe. The day of the world conquerer is no more. Waterloo will forever serve as a warning to aspiring conquerors; and a century afterward the warning is being repeated on a larger scale near the same battleground.

To the historian Waterloo was a great event, determining the future of many peoples and governments. To the military man it was brilliant with maneuvre, charge and countercharge. To the student of government it stands out as another death blow to emperors and despotism and a blow for popular liberty and popular government.

A year ago Belgium was preparing to celebrate the hundredth anniversary today, and it was proposed to have many nations represented at the exercises in honor of the completion of a hundred years of peace in Belgium. The contennial day dawns on a ruined and devastated land, dependent on other nations for the very food to keep its people alive. Its faithful army lies in the trenches defending one corner of Belgium. Through its former peaceful lands Teutonic railways are transporting fresh troops to check the onward move of the allies.

GRADUATION EXERCISES HELD AT PASSAVANT HOSPITAL

Diplomas Presented to a Class of Six Young Women Who Have Finished Nurses' Course—Several Address Made—Social Hour Followed Program.

June 17th, 1915, will surely be memorable in the history of Passavant hospital for it witnessed the graduation of six estimable young ladies armed with diplomas which mean a thorough training and successful examinations in the profession of nursing. They were Misses Clytie Andrews, Alice Wales, Elizabeth Ann Whistler, Della Edna Davis, Ruth Rebecca Stadler, Gladys Maurine Knopp.

The east front and grounds were beautifully decorated with flags and while special lights illuminated the lawn. In front of the east porch rows of chairs were arranged and an interested audience gathered there and enjoyed the exercise. Dr. A. L. Adams presided and announced the numbers on the program.

Rev. W. E. Spoonts offered the invocation and then Miss Mabel Mathews favored the audience with a vocal solo. "I am Thy Harp." Mrs. Helen Brown Read accompanying, and both acquitted themselves with great credit.

Rev. R. O. Post, D. D., then delivered a brief but excellent address extolling the vocation of a nurse and pleading for high ideals. He said that a lady truly called of God to become a nurse and minister to her suffering fellow beings would be earnest and conscientious and above all would remember Charles Read's watchword, 'Put yourself in his place." That is the true secret of success in all callings. If the labor unions and employers, the business men, the producers and consumers would all act on that principle there would be little trouble in the world. The true nurse with a proper idea of her calling will thus try to imitate the great example and her rewards will be His words, 'Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethern ye have done it unto me."

Miss Carrie Dunlap then played a violin solo, with Miss Alma Forsythe accompanying the selection being "Humoresque," by Touraline. The number was excellently done.

Dr. H. C. Smith of Godfrey was then introduced. He is head of a private institution for feeble minded and was for nfteen years connected with the state institution at Lincoln. He mentioned the beginning made in this city in 1871 and told in eloquent terms what was being done for the unfortunates who lack normal mental capacity. At this point a shower warned all to pass inside and the exercises were completed in the chapel.

Miss Mathews again sang another selection, "A Birthday" by Huntington, Mrs. Read accompanying and then Miss Venner, the worthy superintendent, presented the graduates to Dr. Carl E. Black, dean of the training school who addresed them and gave them some very excellent advice. He told of the high standing of the school, registered and subject to state examination, so that a diploma from it meant something to the owner. He told them the profession of nursing was the youngest on the list and carried with it great responsibilities. The professional nurse assues great responsibilities and must depend on her own judgment for she will not have a superintendent and head nurse to direct her. She willn eed patience in caring for the sick and handling the well meaning friends who will be a great annoyance at times. It will be very important to know what to say and still more so to keep silent when it is wise. A nurse should never discuss a doctor with the patient or family; he is in charge and if she is unable to get along with him and follow his instructions she should resign. She should be guided by the true ethics of the profession. She should not attempt to diagnose or prescribe but perform only her allotted duties.

The diplomas were then presented and Miss Venner fastened on each the pin of the organization and the benediction by Rev. W. E. Spoonts ended the formal program. Light refreshments and a pleasant social hour followed.

Rent Houses Wanted

There has never been a time when desirable rent houses, $7.50 to $25, were scarcer at Johnston Agency than they are today. Our facilities for securing the right renter for the right house are good. Being the only agency in the city making a specialty of this business, a constant stream of applicants pours through our office. We know what is due to tenants in the way of repairs, and our tenants stay. On the other hand, we collect all rents in advance, and we do not, upon the average, lose a full month's rent upon one house a year.

Landlords—We think you will find it profitable, and save yourselves a great amount of trouble, if you will let us attend to your rentals. We have made a science of it. And we respectfully solicit your business.

ROUTT COLLEGE CLOSES WORK OF SCHOOL YEAR

TENTH COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES WERE HELD THURSDAY NIGHT.

Diplomas Granted to Fifteen Graduates—Address Made by Rev. J. W. Crowe—Tribute Paid to Memory of Harvey J. Routt who was Thoroughly Devoted to the Interests of the Institution.

The tenth annual commencement exercises of Routt high school were held in the auditorium of Routt college Thursday evening. The audience completely filled the room and many stood in the halls during the exercises. The class was the largest in the history of the school, numbering fifteen members. They are:

Mary Bernice Alexander.
Mary Theresa Doolin.
Margaret Agnes Keating.
Gertrude Vernice Kepler.
Clara Louise Leonard.
Joseph V. Maloney.
Genevieve M. Sehy.
Agnes Cecelia Shields.
Annie Elzabeth Sloan.
Edward P. Stapleton.
Catharine Veronica Sweeney.
Helena Agnes Sweeney.
Catharine Marie Rexroat.
Ralph Leo Ryan.
Margaret Angela Walsh.

Essays Were Given.

The essays of the graduates were splendid and were delivered in an impressive manner. Only a brief resume of each can be given of the various essays. At the conclusion of the program the diplomas were presented by Very Rev. Dean J. W. Crowe.

The class marched into the hall at 8 o'clock and took their places on the stage.

Miss Genevieve Sehy was the salutatorian of the class. Her subject was the "Awakening of China." Miss Sehy showed that she had given much study to her subject. She predicted a great future for the country when it became fully alive to its opportunities. Miss Sehy spoke in good voice and was easily heard by all.

The Class History was read by Miss Annie Elizabeth Sloan. Miss Sloan gave a complete history of the class and of the things it has accomplished. She was quite witty in her remarks.

Ralph Leo Ryan delivered a declamation on the influence of Universities. Mr. Ryan pointed out the splendid good that could be accomplished by university training and said that such training should always be exerted for God and morality.

Miss Mary Bernice Alexander then gave a splendid piano rendition of a Fantasia by Mozart.

The Celtic Revival was the subject chosen by Miss Helena Agnes Sweeney, who pointed out the fact that in spite of the injustice of the early rulers that its people had never lost heart. The years of oppression had caused neglect of industries. The Irish people of today are the equal of those of yesterday. The future of Ireland will rest with its people. It some day will rank with other nation of the earth.

Miss Margaret Angela Walsh had for her subject, "Fine Arts." Miss Walsh reviewed the various arts of the world and told of the early art of the pagans and of latter day art. She also spoke of the development of the drama and of music.

Class Prophecy.

The Class Prophecy was given by Miss Catherine Rexroat who created great merriment by her look into the future. She pictured the members of the class in all sorts of professions. Many became men and women of science; some were dancing teachers and others famous artisis while some became great society ladies.

Miss Clara Louise Leonard had for her subject, "St. Francis of Assissi", and gave a splendid history of St. Francis and of the great things he did. Miss Leonard revealed that she had given her subject careful study.

Ralph Leo Ryan then favored the audience with a piano solo, "Impromptu" by Reinhold.

"St. Theresa" was Miss Margaret Agnes Keating's subject and she had a splendidly written essay and gave it in an excellent manner. Her enunciation was fine and she was heard with close attention.

Joseph V. Maloney gave a declamation on "Formation of Character". The speaker pointed out that the attainment of a good name was within the reach of everyone. The formation of character should have some object in view. One should aim at high ideals. A young man should have that irresistible fire to carry him to his ultimate object.

Miss Mary Bernice Alexander had for her subject "Thomas Alva Edison." She gave a brief history of this great man, of his early struggles and of the great good his inventions had done for mankind. We should not think of Edison as one whose work is finished but as one who has just begun.

Wastefulness of American People, was the subject of Miss Catharine Veronice Sweeney, who pointed out how waste was carried on in land forests and water power. She especially emphasized the waste of water power in the making of electricity.

Miss Mary Theresa Doolin gave an essay on Celebrated Violinists of Yesterday. Miss Doolin herself being a violinist had given the subject much study. She told an interesting story of early violin making and of the wonderful playing of the early violinists.

Miss Agnes Cecelia Shields then read the class will. Miss Shields enumerated various things that were willed to the under classes and each individual had something that was willed to someone yet in school. The different bequests were greeted with much laughter.

Miss Helen Agnes Sweeney then gave a piano solo, "Aragonaise," by Massanet and was followed by Edward P. Stapleton who gave the class oration. Mr. Stapleton's subject was the "Value of a Catholic Education." The speaker had a splendid voice and a good public presence and handled his subject in an excelient manner.

Miss Gertrude Vernice Kepler gave the valedictory. Miss Kepler's subject was "Joan of Arc." She had a well prepared essay which she gave with good effect and her remarks to the class were especially appropriate.

At the conclusion of her address Miss Mary Theresa Doolin gave a violin solo. She was compelled to respond to an encore. The Very Rev. Dean Crowe then presented the diplomas. In presenting them he paid a beautiful tribute to Harvey J. Routt. In addition to the regular class diplomas Routt college also conferred the degree of Bachelor of Arts on Sister Mary Evangeline Sexton, O. S. D., and Miss Mary Reed. Sister Mary Evangeline Sexton has been a teacher in the school for eleven years. Miss Reed is a teacher at the School for the Blind.

Dean Crowe said in part:

Address to Graduates.

"Religious education is of vast importance. Indeed, I do not know any question that can so deeply interest a people who prize their holy faith above every temporal interest, as that which regards the education of their children according to the principles of that holy faith. There is an adage as true as it is old, 'The child is father of the man.' The children of today are the men of tomorrow. As others put it, 'whatever affects the child affects the future man.' The child's heart, so guileless, so innocent, and so sincere, receives in its early education impressions. As childhod develops into youth these impressions ripen into opinions. As youth matures into manhood these opinions become principles and stamp the character of the man. If a man is to have a strong moral character these impressions must be good, these opinions must be good, in a word, he must have the foundation of a good moral, Christian education. To educate a man means to cultivate, train and direct the powers that God has given him. The education which the church proposed is the education of the whole man, an education that takes into account not only man's body, but his soul; not only the present, but the future; not only his temporal end, but his eternal destiny. What is education but a preparation for life? And what is life? Life is not mere passing charge for material happiness and sensual pleasures.

"The church claims that the end and aim of life is not mere prosperity and what the world calls success. She goes even further and tells us that the ideal in life is not intellectual culture. There is something higher, something nobler still, that life is a preparation for eternity. This is nothing more and on this principle she bases her system of education. Education must aim at the training of the intellect the church claims that a man's moral life, his moral character is determined, not by the education of the intellect, but by the training of the heart and will. Train a man's intellect as you will, pour into it the knowledge of the sciences and the arts, teach it nature's secrets and nature's mysteries; you will not thereby make him honest, make him pure, make him God-fearing. Oh, no. The slums of every large city are filled with intellectual lights, geniuses, men whose power, were they turned into proper chanenls, could sway the thoughts of the age, but, who from the lack of moral training, are simply crooks.

"Teach me, Oh Lord, goodness and discipline and knowledge said the Palmist. Much wisdom in a few words. We value the sayings of those who know how to condense into a few forcible words the pith of a whole argument. Why is that famous dictum of Lincoln, 'A government of the people, by the people for the people' in the mouth of everyone. Louis, Ninth's famous expression, 'I am the state' is known to every lover of history. Our Savior was the personification of human and divine wisdom. He said, 'render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God and the things that are God's.' 'Seek for the kingdom of God and his justice and all these things shall be added unto you. Teach me, O Lord, goodness and discipline and science, embody the cravings of the human soul in its striving after the only true and lasting knowledge. The cultivation of the intellect and the expense of the heart is one of the greatest dangers which society has to face in our day.

"A man educated intellectually, but not morally, says Gladstone may become more dangerous than before. The privilege of American citizenship carries with it grave responsibilities. Education must have for its end the building up of the highest type of citizenship and no one will deny that the destines of our country should not be placed in the hands of those whose moral character is not above reproach. The lessons of honesty, truth, justice, purity and love cannot be absent from the curriculum of any institution of learning that fully appreciates the important part it plays in moulding and framing the minds and hearts of those who are to be the defenders of our glorious republic."

Rev. Mr. Crowe then read the following poem written in memory of Harvey J. Routt by one of his friends.

In Memory of H. J. Routt.

He sleeps at feet of Christ neath Cross and illow,
May laurels greet his calm and peaceful brow;
And garnered wheat of glory be his pillow,
While incense sweet of prayer we offer now.

The prayer he knew for mankind was uplifted,
His footsteps true the path of virtue trod;
His swift thought flew from mind the Lord had gifted,
To deering do the deeds that were of God.

His armor, Light, with Helmet of Salvation,
The valiant Knight the Sword of Spirit drew;
Til souls were white with Christian education,
And shining bright in virtue's grand review.

And may we long resound his deeds of kindness,
May busy throngs not soon his worth forget;
For sweet the song from out the heart's unblindness,
Mid din and dong, the good remembered yet.

And so with thought attuned to sound supernal,
Tis then is wrought the heart-accord of will;
And music caught from Melody Eternal,
Is Heaven taught and sweetest music still.

Before him lies the future grand and glorious,
When sorow dies with pain of all the past;
Beyond the skies, may sweetest sound, Victorious,
In glad surprise, he heard by him at last

So rest in Peace, today, and aye, tomorrow,
Thy wealth increase in profit without loss;
May pain surcease, and Thee from every sorrow,
May God release, to Glory of the Cross.

USING SOAP SPOILS THE HAIR

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and greaseless), is cheaper and better than soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

COMPANY B. WILL HAVE PRACTICE CAMP AT NICHOLS PARK

Plan Is Part of General Arrangements Being Made by Capt. Owen to Have Campaign for Recruits—Expectation Is to Have Full Quota of 65—Company Has Excellent Record.

Captain L. P. Owen of Company B, is arranging for a practice camp to be held at Nichols' park June 26 and 27. It is the intention to make an effort to get recruits. The following is some history of the local company and the men who compose it:

Company B. Fifth infantry, was mustered into service July 11, 1911, and has made an enviable record along all military lines. The officers and non-commissioned officers are as follows. It is due to their efforts that the company has maintained a high standard of efficiency:

Capt. L. P. Owen has served 12 years in the National Guard and served as volunteer in the Spanish-American war.

Lieut. Samuel C. Hunt has served more than fifteen years and was second lieutenant of volunteers during the Spanish-American war.

Lieut. Thomas K. Hale has had three years' experience in the National Guard and by hard study has become a very valuable officer.

The Sergeants are Hugh Shepard, Luther Burke, Harrison Dickson, John Capps, Ernest Kelly, Joseph Patterson.

The Corporals are Roy Williams, Siddons Armstrong, James Stubblefield, Benjamin Prewitt, Harold Maginnis and Elmer Flynn. They are all men of at least three years' service.

The standard maintained for recruits has been uniformly higher than that in most military comnies and Company B has always gone to encampment with a very representative bunch of young men. In their armory they have equipment for 65 men. This equipment covers everything that would be used by a regular army company in active service. The state provides one-half and the government one-half of the pay and equipment of the national guard.

The company has looked forward for two years to the national pay bill, which will provide that they receive a small amount for faithful service and regular attendance at drills throughout the year. The bill has passed the lower house of congress twice, but has been defeated in the senate, but will undoubtedly pass in a short time, because of unsatisfactory points having been removed at the recommendation of the war department.

It has been the custom in cities supporting military companies for citizens to assist in different ways in developing the company. In some towns wireless apparatus has been donated at no small expense. In other cities club rooms have been supplied in the armories and furnished at the expense of the merchants.

In other places outfits of china and silverware have been given the companies, but Company B to date has not felt the need of asking anything from the citizens of Jacksonville.

The company is entering upon a campaign for recruits to develop the strength of 65 men, better drilled and more efficient than any company which has ever represented Jacksonville. To aid in this they are preparing to offer prizes, both cash and articles of wearing apparel to be competed for by individual members of the company and presented to them by Col. Wood, commander of the Fifth infantry, the last drill night before encampment. Also they are planning a practice march to take place Saturday evening, June 26, and finish Sunday evening, June 27. They will march to Nichols park and pitch camp and mount guard on Saturday night. Sunday will be spent in performing all sorts of military duties, such as close order drill, extending order drill, pitching tents, stacking arms, mounting guard, cooking and lessons in sanitary camping.

The state provides no funds for these practice marches and it is the plan of the officers and the men of Company B to solicit funds, articles and food necessary to carry out this plan. It is the intention to ask merchants and citizens for small amounts to bring about the desired results in the company and the committee of officers and men will visit the merchants on Saturday afternoon of this week.

EUROPEAN WAR NOTES

Paris, June 17. — The president and members of the Russian duma sent today to the French chamber of deputies, by the powerful new wireless station erected in Russia, a telegram expressing confidence in the victory of the allies. President Paul Deschanel of the chamber of deputies responded with a message of thanks.

The text is as follows:

"There has been great activity on the front during the last two days. The fighting to the north of Arras since yesterday has taken on a character of extreme intensity. The infantry actions have been numerous and desperate; the duel of artillery violent and continuous.

"We have realized important progress, almost all of which has been maintained, notwithstanding the furious counter attacks of the enemy, some of which were markedly accentuated today.

"It is especially in the north part of the sector that we have progressed, carrying several lines of trenches on both sides of the road from Aix-Houlette to Souchez. The Germans are still holding on in the Fond de Bouvel, but they are almost completely surrounded.

"We made advances yesterday and today toward Souchez in the directions northwest, southeast, west and east in an uninterrupted fashion.

"Further to the south we have taken foot in the park of the Chateau de Carleul, the moats of which, filled with water, served as a base for the enemy's defenses; captured the cemetery of Souchez and gained ground on the slopes to the southeast of Souchez (hill 119), thanks to several brilliant assaults.

"The gains of yesterday were enlarged today."

San Francisco, June 17. — The few Bulgarians residing in San Francisco have received orders to return to their native country prepard for service in the field, it was learned today. They were directed to take with them clothing, bandages, two pounds of beans, two pounds of rice and other equipment.

Paris, June 17.—The official communication issued by the war office tonight describes intense activity along the French front, the allied forces delivering powerful attacks and the Germans counter attacking furiously. To the north of Arras the French have carried several lines of German trenches and two hills and are making marked progress toward Souchez.

Heavy losses on both sides are reported.

London, June 17.—A dispatch from Berlin by way of Amsterdam to the Central news agency contains the text of an official message giving the German version of the air raid on the British northeast coast on the night of June 15-16. It says that bombs were dropped on fortified places along the coast, starting fires and silencing one coast battery. The airships returned undamaged.

Berlin, June 17, via London — The report that Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerhard, who arrived here today from Washington with messages to the foreign office from Count Von Bernstorff, is in reality Dr. Alfred Meyer, chief of the supply department of the German army, was denied, authoritatively here today.

SEEKS INJUNCTION AGAINST CABINET MEMBER

Washington, June 17.—The right of the president of the United States to include in land reserves in the west property already "declared on" by railroad companies under congressional grant, is questioned in a suit in equity to be given a hearing tomorrow in the supreme court of the District of Columbia. The secretary of the interior, Franklin J. Lane, and the commissioner of the general land office, Clay Tallman, are sued by the Central Pacific Railway company, and an injunction is sought to prevent the cancellation of certain indemnity selections by the railway company, claimed to have been authorized by congress in 1866, because the land is included within the area of a power plant reserve under a recent executive order. Justice McCoy has issued a ruling on the secretary and the land commissioner to show cause today why the injunction should not issue.

The railway company declares that certain land grants were made to its predecessors in aid of railroad construction and under the law the company was empowered to select indemnity locations when certain particular lands might not be obtainable. Prior to the passage of the act of June 25, 1910, which authorized the president to withdraw any lands not settled upon, the company asserts, it had filed its indemnity selections and that on November 25, 1911, the chief executive issued an order withdrawing certain lands in which he included property selected by the company more than a year before.

The Central Pacific asserts that if these executive orders are to be effective against it there will not be enough public lands left open to satisfy its indemnity grants. It claims that it should be permitted to perfect its claims to the land selected and that the officials should be enjoined from cancelling its grants and including the pre-empted land within the reserve made by the executive order in question.

It is Just Natural To Admire Babies

Our altruistic nature impels love for the cooing infant. And at the same time the subject of motherhood is ever before us. To know what to do that will add to the physical comfort of expectant motherhood is a subject that has interested most women of all times. One of the real helpful things is an external abdominal application sold in most drug stores under the name of "Mother's Friend." We have known so many grandmothers, who in their younger days relied upon this remedy, and who recommend it to their own daughters that it certainly must be what its name indicates. They have used it for its direct influence upon the muscles, cords, ligaments and tendons as it aims to afford relief from the strain and pain so often unnecessarily severe during the period of expectancy.

Every woman should mention "Mother's Friend" when the stork is the subject of conversation. An interesting little book is mailed free upon application to Bradfield Regulator Co., 505 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It refers to many things that women like to read about. It also contains more complete directions than could be put upon a label. It refers not only to the relief from muscle strain due to their expansion but also to nausea, morning sickness, caking of breasts.

Get or recommend a bottle of "Mother's Friend" to-day and write for the book.

The effect of this splendid external application is an expression of the thousands of women who have successfully used it and recommended it through two generations.

THE GIRL GRADUATE

In school, academy and college stands forth the modern cultured girl, her lovely head so stuffed with knowlege it fairly makes her tresses curl. We all lean back in admiration when she stands up to make her speech, the finest product of the nation, the one serene, unblemished peach. Behold her in her snowy garments, the pride, the honor of her class! A malediction on the varmints who say her learning cuts no grass! "She hasn't learned to fry the mutton, she's not equipped to be a wife; she couldn't fasten on a button to save her sweet angelic life! With all her mighty fund of learning, hhe's ignorant of useful chores; she cannot keep an oil stove burning so it won't smoke us out of doors. The man she weds will know disaster, his dreams of home and love will spoil; she cannot make a mustard plaster, or put a poultice on a boil". Avaunt, ye crokers, skip and caper, or we'll upset your applecarts! The damsel rises with her paper on "Old Greek Gods and Modern Arts". So pledge her in a grapejuice flagon! Who cares if she can sew or bake? She's pretty as a new red wagon, and sweeter than an old plum cake.

CUBS DOWN BROOKLYN IN NINETEEN INNINGS

SETS SEASON'S RECORD FOR NUMBER OF INNINGS.

Finish is Heartbreaking From the Standpoint of Pfeffer, Who Loses Despite His Brilliant Work—Support Given Both Twirlers is Erratic.

Chicago, June 17.—Battling neck and neck in a great exhibition of pitching, Zazel, Chicago and Pfefefr of Brooklyn today fought a nineteen inning game to a finish which was heartbreaking from the standpoint of the visiting pitcher, for the Cubs won despite his brilliant work. The game set a season's record for number of innings, but it was player rapidly. Pfeffer worked all through the contest and Zabel succeeded Humphries when the latter's hand was split by Wheat's hit in the first inning.

Erratic support was given both slab men. Every Brooklyn run was helped directly by an error and two of Chicago's were due to misplays, Fisher counting the winning score when Cutshaw threw wild on Williams' hard grounder in the nineteenth.

"MORNING GLANCES"
(By Gosh)

Rudolph allowed the Cardinals but one hit until the seventh in Thursday's game. Yet they won by a score of 2 to 0. Two singles, a base on balls, a wild pitch and Smith's error allowed two runs to come over. The Braves got six hits off of Robinson but could not get a run across.

* * *

It must have made Connie Mack reflect Thursday. Eddie Collins, whom Mack sold to the White Sox beat the Athletics practically by himself. Collins made three hits, one run and stole two bases. Two of his hits were for two bases. In addition to this he had ten chances in the field and accepted all of them without an error.

* * *

Jack Fournire went hitless in the game. It isn't often that he is stopped without getting one safety.

* * *

It looks like Chief Bender is about through as a major league pitcher. Yesterday Kansas City forced him to retire in the fourth and won the game 9 to 5. The weather has been bad this year so far for the old times. It may be that when warm weather starts that the Chief will again get back to form.

* * *

Once in awhile Cincinnati does something unexpected. For instance yesterday the Reds beat the Phillies by a score of 2 to 1. The Reds got to Mayer for nine safeties.

* * *

New York won its sixth straight game Thursday when she beat Cleveland by a score of 7 to 3. Caldwell held Cleveland to two hits until the ninth. Then High misjudged a fly ball and Cleveland made three runs before being retired.

* * *

Detroit won yesterday, yet despite this fact the Red Sox tied them. The tie comes in the figuring of percentages. The teams were practically tied Wednesday. In figuring percentages if the fraction is over a half it is made the next highest figure if it is under a half it is dropped. On Wednesday the fraction was under ahalf and it was dropped thus making Detroit one point ahead. On Thursday the Red Sox's percentage figured over a half and one was added thus making them tied with the Tigers.

* * *

In a wild and woolly game the Boston Red Sox won from St. Louis by a score of 11 to 10. Each team used two pitchers but none seemed to be able to fool the batters as twenty-one hits were made by the two teams.

RETURN FROM CALIFORNIA.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boston returned Thursday morning from California where they have been for about ten weeks. They were accompanied to California by their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Clarence Boston, and by Mrs. Frank McDougall. They spent most of their time in Monrovia where their son, Clarence, has been located for the past two years and is conducting a very successful fruit and dairy farm. They greatly enjoyed their western trip, although their stay in California was somewhat marred because of Mrs. Boston's illness, and this prevented their visiting the Panama-Pacific exposition. Mr. Boston said yesterday that he thinks more of Illinois now than he ever did before, after his railroad view of a number of the western states.

VALUE OF CORN RESIDUES IN PERMANENT AGRICULTURE.

(By A. F. Gustafson, Soil Physics, University of Illinois—Article II.)

Any consideration of the general subject of crop residues is hardly within the scope of this brief discussion, yet organic matter is so closely related to and so intimately associated with permanent agriculture that it deserves attention here.

In southern Illinois at the Odin field in Marion county, on gray silt loam on tight clay, the common prairie soil of southern Illinois, a four-year rotation of corn, cowpeas, wheat and clover has been practiced since 1902. Soybeans are grown whenever clover fails.

The total value of the four crops, corn, cowpeas, wheat and soybeans, for the year, Odin field:

Values were figured on the basis of corn 35c per bushel soy bean seed $1 per bushel and cow pea hay $6 per ton.

It should be borne in mind that in the case of plots 1 and 6, all crops are harvested and all except wheat straw included in the total value $173.34, while on plots 2 and 7 only the seed and grain are included in the total value $202.28, or a difference of $28.94, and all cornstalks, wheat, cowpeas and soybean hay and straw are turned under. Each crop was grown every year, so thirty-two plots are involved, or there is an average increase for residues of 90c per acre per year. This does not seem a large amount, but the 90c per acre is clear profit, and it should be remembered that the grain values used are very conservative. At this rate a quarter section of land, the annual gain is $144. For ten years the total net gain would be at this rate $1,440, and the soil will be much richer in organic matter than where a system is practiced including no return of organic materials.

At the Bloomington field in central Illinois, on brown silt loam, where crop residues have been turned under for four years, the yield of wheat in 1911 was increased 3.1 bushels per acre over that where no residues were returned. In 1912 corn was increased 14.6 bushels and in 1913 7.9 bushels. Figuring corn in the field at 35 cents per bushel, oats at 30 cents and wheat at 70 cents, the increase from returning residues is $10.05 per acre for the three years, or $3.35 a year. A five year rotation of corn, oats, clover and wheat was practiced on this field.

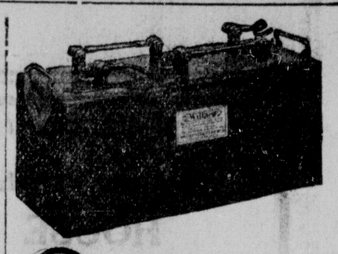

In order to secure good yields it is essential to keep the soil well supplied with active organic matter, which in the process of decay liberates mineral plant food and furnishes readily available nitrogen. Of no less importance is the physical effect of organic matter in producing good tilth and holding moisture. For these reasons it is clear that in any permanent, profitable system of cropping it is absolutely necessary to plow under crop residues and other organic material consistently in order to maintain the supply of active organic matter.

The doll is the most ancient of toys. Examples have been found in the graves of the children of ancient Rome and they are known to have been in use before that time.

The average duration of life is increasing. It has risen from 21¼ years in the sixteenth century to 40½ years in the nineteenth century.

Milady's Mirror

For Greasy Skins.
A greasy, shiny skin is one of the ills to which many of us are liable. One can never manage to look nice with a shiny nose and greasy skin. Don't think that by simply smothering the face all over with powder you will cure this trouble. Try instead this plan: Add a teaspoonful of cloudy ammonia to the water in which you wash. This has a very drying effect upon the skin—not too drying, be it said, but it serves to counteract the excessive action of the pores. Before going out dust a very little powder over your face, but don't dab it on indiscriminately. If you continue putting ammonia in your washing water all through the summer you will find that your skin will lose its tendency to greasiness in due course.

The Old Rag Curler.
There is nothing that will make the hair curl as naturally as the old fashioned rag curlers. However today the fastidious woman is making her curlers out of ribbon, choosing her favorite color for them.
Select ribbon three inches wide and eleven inches long. Double this, twist together loosely and sew narrow ribbon of the same shade at each end. After the hair is rolled over the ribbon tie firmly together with the narrow ribbon ends.
Make two small flat bows with ends four inches long. Fasten one at each side with the ends pinned down toward the ears and you have almost hidden the curlers except where the color peeps through at intervals.

New High Hairdressing.
Hairdressing, though it appears to be very simple, is really a most complicated affair nowadays, for unless one has just the right twist to the hair and, above all, just the right kind of big, loose wave now in vogue, the coiffure will not look smart nor quite as it should.
High hairdressing brought back from the forehead severely demands some softening feature to make it becoming. This is supplied in the big loose waves which are seen in all the newest coiffures. The hair is marceled lightly in waves, which are large and loose, and while these do not take away from the severe effect now so much in vogue they add greatly to the becoming effect of the new hairdressing.

When Feet Are Tired.
When one has much walking to do tired and aching feet are the rule rather than the exception. The following plan is exceedingly effective: Before going out for a very long walk rub a little methylated spirit well into the soles of the feet. Do the same on coming in. You have no idea how refreshing it is and how it helps to cure any undue sensitiveness and prevents the formation of blisters. Never go out for very long walks in very thin silk stockings, for not only is this a most extravagant procedure, walking causing them to wear into holes, but thin stockings are very tiring to the feet.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

RUMORS OF ALLIES SUCCESS IN DARDANELLES LOWERS WHEAT

Lowest Prices of the Day Come Immediately After False Reports That the Dardanelles Had Been Forced.

Chicago, June 17.—Rumors of important success for the British and French in their effort to reopen the Dardanelles did a good deal today to make wheat average lower in price. The market closed unsettled at ⅞@1c off to ⅛c advance. Corn finished unchanged to ⅜c higher, oats ⅜c down to a sixteenth up and provisions the same as last night to 15c decline.

Lowest prices of the day in the wheat pit came immediately after false reports that the Dardanelles had been forced. It was not until after the close of the session that any definite news came indicating a genuine basis for claims of headway being made in naval attacks on the Turks. Before that time the attention of traders had largely reverted to the effects of heavy rains throughout the west and southwest—conditions which at the beginning of the session had brought about a sharp bulge in the market.

Foreign selling here and at the seaboard made a decided impression toward weakening wheat prices throughout most of the day except at the start and the finish when the fear of harvest delays seemed to be uppermost in affecting quotations.

Torrential rains were reported in parts of Kansas, Oklahoma and Nebraska. One place in the last named state, the town Curtis was said to have been deluged with 11 inches of rain.

Persistent buying on the part of houses with country connections more than counter-balanced in the corn market the effect of the weakness of wheat. Opinion gained ground that a very late fall would be needed to mature the crop where planting had been delayed.

Oats rallied with corn. There was much complaint of excessive wet weather and of rank growth.

DEALINGS IN STOCKS SUGGEST A STATE OF SUSPENDED ANIMATION

Total Output Falls Far Below the Average of the Early Days of the Month.

New York, June 17.—Dealings in stocks today sugested a state of suspended animation, the total output falling far below the average of the early days of the month. This condition may be ascribed largely to the absence of public interest, together with the increasing disinclination of professional traders to renew operations on a large scale, pending the settlement or at least a more definite outcome of the international situation. Shares of recognized intrinsic value were under moderate pressure at intermittent periods while specialties whose chief claim to public attention lies in their participation in war contracts made further gains. Even in these issues, however, the movement was not altogether in the one direction, Bethlehem steel common and preferred receding materially likewise Westinghouse and a few others of the same group.

Coppers and metals were mildly reactionary, probably as a result of the severe decline in copper metal abroad and intimations of a shading of recent high prices in the local market. Federal mining, one of the recent sensational features of the metal division by reason of its meteoric rise suffered another break of nine points, making a total of 25 points since Monday.

MEREDOSIA AS IT IS NOW.

Four years ago the Christian temperance and moral men of Meredosia voted the saloons out and we have been living in a local option territory ever since. There has been a good deal published in the papers about the dry element gaining the victory over the wets. Now any scholar in our public high school will tell you that it would be impossible to have the open saloons in Meredosia until local option is voted out by the people at the town election. Last spring there were two tickets out, the Progressive and the Citizen, both dry tickets, and just as good and noble men on one as on the other; men that had the best interest of the town at heart. Now the Progressive was called the wet ticket, and was defeated. Now in justice to the men that were on the ticket and the men and women who supported it, the writer can not understand why it was called a wet ticket. Every intelligent person knows that progressive means moving forward, advancing and improving. Our town board consists of six aldermen, town clerk, town treasurer and a president of the board and the president receives $18 a year for serving the people. While we do not have the open salons we have whisky brought from various directions. It does not seem possible to stop this and there are sometimes drunks on our streets.

One who believes in temperance.

PIANO RECITAL.

There will be a piano recital given by the pupils of Miss Myrtle Sheppard this evening at 8 o'clock in Brown's piano rooms. The public is cordially invited.

The youth is their only child and both parents are distracted over his absence.

INTEREST GROWING IN GREAT AUTO SPEED RACE IN CHICAGO

Record Recently Made On New Track Shows Its Superiority to Any Other American Track — A Change in Date Welcome News for Drivers.

Chicago, June 17.—The world's record for speed has been smashed at the new two-mile board track of Speedway park. Dario Resta, famous Italian driver, in qualifying for the big 500-mile race to be run June 26, drove the course in one minute and five seconds, an average of 110.1 miles an hour.

This wonderful performance surpasses the best time ever made for the distance by cars having 300 cubic inches of piston displacement. As practically all races on this continent are limited to cars of the 300-inch class, this record establishes the mark at which all drivers must shoot in the future.

While it had been freely predicted that the Speedway park track would prove the fastest in the world, the performance of Resta in his little Peugeot definitely confirms the boast of Chicago automobile men that drivers who would establish a world's record must race on this track. In 1914, when cars of unlimited displacement were used in competition, Jean Chassange at Brooklands, England, drove a 12-cylinder Sunbeam at a rate slightly less than 120 miles an hour. This time was made by what today might be termed a freak car.

The phenoenal time made by Resta on the Speedway course displaces Caleb Bragg for his position as title holder. Bragg drove at Los Angeles in April, 1910, at an average of 95.5 miles an hour.

Previous to the construction of the Speedway board track, America looked at the races at Indianapolis for new records. A comparison of times made by drivers at Indianapolis and in their preliminary tryouts at Speedway park track show the perfection in scientific track construction achieved by the Chicago automobile men.

Here are the figures:

SCHOOL GRAFT TRIAL IN ST. LOUIS

St. Louis, Mo., June 17.—August H. Kuhs, a real estate dealer and member of the board of education will be put on trial today on an indictment charging that he had shared in a profit of $11,500 made through the transfer of a school site to the board. Judge Calvin N. Miller of the Court of Criminal Correction, has disqualified himself for the trial, because of the objection of Kuhs' friends that the committeeman could not get a fair trial in his court. The case goes before a judge of the circuit bench. The trial will be closely watched and Committeeman Kuhs will make a bitter fight to clear his name, it is announced.

WOMEN CALL ON HOUSE COMMITTEE; ARE ASKED TO RETIRE

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17—Twenty-five women representing the congressional union for women suffrage, called upon nine members of the congressional house committee on appropriations in session here today and encountered what on both sides was said to be a rebuff. The committeemen were here to consider reclamation projects. When the women entered their room in response to what they understood to be an invitation from Representative Frank W. Mondell, of Wyoming, in order to ask support for what is known as the Susan B. Anthony suffrage amendment in congress, they were asked to retire. They did and waited outside the door until the committeemen began to come out. Of the nine, the women reported "all but three rushed by without even lifting their hats".

HEAVY STORMS VISIT KANSAS AND POINTS IN NEARBY STATES

Rains From One to Six Inches are Reported to Have Done Much Damage to Ripening Wheat.

Kansas City, Mo., June 17.—All of Kansas was swept today an tonight by heavy storms which also visited points of western Missouri, northern Oklahoma and southern Nebraska.

Heavy rains from one to six inches, are reported to have done much damage in Kansas to the ripening wheat and are causing streams to rise rapidly. The Solomon river was reported tonight as rapidly rising at Beliot, where the rainfall amounted to six inches.

A four inch rain fell at Concordia and the Republican river is rising there. Hutchinson reported a four inch rain which levelled hundreds of acres of ripening wheat. A heavy rain visited Havs and a small tornado west of that town did minor damage.

At Topeka tonight an inch and a quarter of rain fell in two hours, making more than six inches of rain for the present month, 15 inches in the last 30 days. A high wind caused damage.

Heavy rains fell throughout north west Missouri. In many places severe windstorms were reported. Wire communication throughout this section has been badly crippled.

FIVE HUNDRED WORK FRANTICALLY TO RESCUE IMPRISONED MINERS

Discover That Men Are Alive by Tapping on an Air Line Driven Into Drift—Have Been Entombed Seven Days.

Joplin, Mo., June 17—Five hundred miners, working in five hour shifts, are tonight digging frantically into the seventy feet of earth and stone which has held Daniel Hardendorf and Reid Taylor, prisoners for seven days in the Longacre-Chapman mine at Neck City. The fact that the men are alive was discovered today by the tapping on an air line driven into the drift. Seven other men imprisoned at the same time as Hardendorf and Taylor, were rescued Tuesday. News that the two miners were alive after a week under ground spread rapidly through the mining district and the drift in which the accident occurred was surrounded by a great crowd many miners standing by to take the place of any worker forced to leave his place. According to the estimates of mining engineers the imprisoned men cannot be reached until noon tomorrow.

MIDSHIPMEN GIVE INTERESTING OPINIONS ON "CRIBBING"

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 17—Highly interesting opinions of midshipmen on "cribbing" and "dope" or advance information on examinations were given today before the court of inquiry which is investigating those matters at the naval academy.

"Is it not the general impression among the midshipman regiment that the seven original defendants were picked by the former investigating board to be the "goats", asked Congressman Carlin of Midshipmen H. M. Mullinix, a witness.

"It is", was the reply.

Millinix testified that J. K. Davis and W. E. Mackay did not study the advance questions which were generally circulated because they thought these "might be really a part of the examination".

He thought the "dope" he had might have come within the illegal classification and possibly had gotten out, not with the approval, but with the knowledge of the authorities.

MUNICH IS COMPELLED TO CURTAIL CONSUMPTION OF BEER

MUNICH, Bavaria, via London, June 17th — Wunich, one of the greatest beer drinking centers in Germany, has been compelled sharply to curtail the consumption of beer owing to the expropriation by the military authorities of a large product of the breweries. The amount of beer now available for public use is only one-third of the ordinary supply.

A number of the famous beer gardens are now closing at seven o'clock in the evening owing to the shortage of beer. Some of these places are encouraging their guests to call for lemonade as a substitute for beer.

SIX RECEIVED DIPLOMAS AT JACKSONVILLE STATE HOSPITAL

Address Made to Graduates by Dr. George Zeller of State Board of Administration—Exercises Followed by Social Event in Amusement Hall.

Graduating exercises of the Jacksonville State Hospital training school were held last night in amusement hall in the new building and proved of a very interesting character. A large audience was present including employes of the hospital and their friends resident in Jacksonville. Dr. W. E. Hill, superintendent of the hospital presided and announced the various speakers.

The exercise began with a selection of the hospital orchestra and then the invocation was given by Rev. M. L. Pontius. Hon. Fred Kern president of the State Board of Administration had been announced to give an address to the graduattes but a telegram from him received in the afternoon announced that the pressure of board business made it impossible for him to be present. In his stead Dr. George A. Zeller, alienist of the state board made the address. Dr. Zeller reviewed briefly the history of the training school since established in connection with the state hospital and indicated the value of the work done and its constantly broadening scope. Each year is showing some advance and the training school is of great value to those who avail themselves of its privileges and through them, by improved service the state is benefitted. Dr. Zeller talked also about the influence of home life and declared the love of home among peoples and tribes indicated much about their general characteristics. He illustrated his point by relating incidents of travel abroad. Altogether the address was one the audience found interesting and inspirational.

After another selection by the orchestra the diplomas were delivered to the graduates by Mr. A. L. Bowen of the state board of charities. Mr. Bowen made brief remarks complimenting the graduates for the excellence of the work done. Those who received diplomas were Misses Iola Downs, Fannie Estes, Jennie Adkins, Nora Shade and Florence Childs and Ellis Council. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. M. L. Pontius.

Following the program a reception and dance was given and the occasion proved one of great social pleasure.

The management of the hospital seeks to interest all attendants in the training school. They have the privilege of taking the work and advance through the various classes in accordance with work done. Those who persevere are enabled to advance to larger salaried positions and the good effect of training school work in the various state institutions is very apparent. This class at the Jacksonville hospital this year has done work of such class that the management has been justified in the approval given the graduates. Graduation does not mean that those who receive diplomas at once leave the state service but on the contrary an effort is made to keep them in the work for which they have qualified

ATTENDANCE LARGE AT SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

Rev. C. G. Cantrall of Literberry was in Danville Tuesday for the opening day's exercises of the State Sunday School association and has written the Journal that the attendance was the largest in the history of the association, with every indication of the convention being one of the most interesting. Wednesday Rev. Mr. Cantrall went to Chicago to attend the "Kesswick Convention," which will continue through today. It is being held at the Moody Bible institute and the principal instructor is Rev. W. H. Griffith Thomas, D. D., of Wycliffe college, Toronto. Quite a large number of ministers are in attendance. Mr. Cantrall reached Chicago just about the time the street cars started, after being out of service for two days, and says that the rejoicing as indicated by newspaper reports was not at all overdrawn. He said, too, that the variety and number of vehicles pressed into service for the transportation of people while the cars were out of service was wonderful indeed. Farm wagons, transfer wagons and vehicles off all classes were fitted up with board seats to help out during the emergency.

FRANK NUNES FREED OF CHARGE OF KILLING HIS FATHER

Jury Returned a Verdict of Acquittal After About One Hour's Deliberations—Other Court Orders.

Frank Nunes was acquitted in the circuit court Thursday of the charges of killing his father, Antonio Nunes in February, 1914. The case was given to the jury at 4:30 o'clock and within an hour's time the verdict freeing young Nunes was returned to Judge Burton

Nunes took the stand Thursday morning in his own behalf. He was subjected to a grilling cross examination by the prosecution and did not prove a good witness from the standpoint of the defense. The taking of his testimony, the argument made by attorneys and the instructions of the court occupied the time until 4:30 when the case was given to the jury. Nunes on the stand was asked by Attorney Priest if it was not true that Mrs. Nunes and Jake Ornellas held his father while he shot him. The reply was to the effect that they were not holding him, and further questioning brought out the statement that earlier in the evening that the persons mentioned had urged young Nunes to do the shoting, stating that they would hold Antonio Nunes, now deceased.

The opening statement for the state was made by State's Attorney Tilton and J. O. Priest closed. John M. Butler, J. Marshall Miller and W. N. Hairgrove made the argument for the defense. Nunes' attorneys made a strong plea in his behalf urging upon the jury that the young man's action was wholly justified in self defense and that the shooting was by no means the result of deliberate planning on his part. Those who watched the trial all the way through felt that a strong defense had been built up for Nunes and that it showed no signs of breaking save at one point in his own testimony.

SOME TALL CORN.

E. E. Fox who lives five miles northwest of Waverly brought to the Journal office yesterday some samples of corn stalks from a forty acre field on his place. The field was in oats last year and so badly used up by chinch bugs it had to be plowed up. This year he planted the field April 15th with Reid's Yellow Dent corn and the stalks he had with him were seven and a half feet tall. He has been able to cultivate the ground so that the field is comparatively free of weeds. He has in all 302 acres of corn on his farm but none other quite equal to the crop on the forty acre tract mentioned.
